

Alfred C. Matejka

October 9, 1923 - June 26, 2013

Alfred Charles Matejka was born to Charles Matejka and Anna Vavra Matejka on Oct. 9, 1923, at Milligan, Ne., and passed away June 26, 2013, at Ridgewood Care Center in Seward, Ne., at the age of 89 years, 8 months and 17 days. He was one of 5 children in the family.

Alfred was born, raised and lived on the same farm Northeast of Milligan all his life except for the past 5 1/2 years. After graduating from Milligan High School in 1942 he started a lifetime career of farming the family farm. In 1984 Alfred was recipient of the Ak-Sar-Ben Pioneer Farm award given to families in Nebraska whose land has been owned by the same family 100 years or more.

Alfred had a love for conversation and telling stories, especially topics such as family and community historic events, pioneer methods and life, and of course the "weather", a true farmer.

Being a very kind and patient person he cared for his mother until she passed away in April 9, 1969.

Alfred married Joy Weddle Eurich March 29, 1971. In the 36 years of marriage Alfred and Joy enjoyed gardening, polka and country music, traveling, family time, good food and most of all the company of each other.

After Joy passed away Nov. 2007, Alfred moved to assisted care at the Greene House in Seward. Oct. 2013 he moved to Ridgewood Care Center as his health was declining. June 20, 2013 Alfred started receiving Hospice care. During this time he was baptized into the Catholic faith.

To know Alfred was to know his humor and good nature. He always had a smile on his face and a good word until the very end of his life. When asked how he was doing, the answer always was "like an old man"! Never, it seemed did he tire of being outdoors with nature and traveling the countryside looking at crops and the land.

Alfred was preceded in death by his parents, wife Joy, sisters Mollie Nun, Georgia Pracheil, Helene Romero, and Rose Matejka. Stepson John Eurich and Step - daughter Linda Hamelin

He is survived by: nieces, Patricia & husband Robert Lee - Lincoln, NE. Mary & husband Harlan Mettenbrink - Wimberley, TX. Elaine & husband Merlyn Nielsen - Seward, Ne. and

“ Dear family of Alfred Matejka, My husband and I had Casa del Rey Mexican restaurant and Alfred and Joy would visit often when they were in York. We so enjoyed visiting with them. Once we had a contest to name a huge cactus in our restaurant and they came up with the winning entry. Cactus Pete. The plant would produce little ones and as we dug them out and potted them we would call them our Re"Pete"ers. We have many fond memories of them. Our sympathy to you on his passing. May our Lord and Saviour wrap his loving arms around you during this sad time.

“ Sorry to hear about Alfred. He was a fantastic guy who loved to visit. He always had a joke or two tell and was a friend to everyone he met. Alfred will be missed, but will forever live in the hearts of everyone who knew him. With Sympathy,
