Evelyn Mae Luethke, of York, Nebraska, formerly of Fairmont, Nebraska, passed away on June 25, 2021 in Lincoln, Nebraska at the age of 96 years and 25 days. Evelyn was born on May 31, 1925 in Geneva, Nebraska to Clyde Ray & Mabel Leona (Crouch) Churchill.

Evelyn was baptized and confirmed in the Methodist Church in Geneva in 1936. Evelyn married Dennis Albro on April 26, 1942, and two children were born to this union: Sharon & Pam. Dennis passed away in 1955. She then met Walter Luethke and they were married on August 22, 1956. They made their home on a farm north of Grafton on the Blue River. During the school years for the girls, Evelyn enjoyed teaching Sunday School, 4-H, sewing, cooking, and Brownie Scouts. After the girls were married, she enjoyed having and babysitting the grands. She made each grandchild a quilt and afgan, later sewing prom dresses and bridesmaid dresses for them. She enjoyed having friends over for meals and card games, and you missed a great time if you missed one of Evelyn's catfish dinners.

Evelyn was also a proud member of PEO, serving in several capacities in her chapter over the years.

After Walter retired from farming, they enjoyed traveling with friends across the states and decided to move to Arizona in 1992. Walter passed away in 2005 and Evelyn remained in Arizona until 2014 when she decided to move to York to be closer to family as she continued to live on her own. She liked to be independent, enjoyed canning, and especially loved watching all the great and great great grandchildren while they came to visit.

PS

Sharon, I was so sorry to hear about your mother. She was a lovely person, and I know you will miss her. It's not easy saying goodbye to a parent, but you can be grateful she had a full and long life. My sympathies to you and your family. Peggy
