Allen was born to Kathryn (Johannsen) Headrick and Allen Minor Headrick, Sr. on November 20th, 1926 at Alexandria, Nebraska. He passed away April 22, 2021 at the age of 94 years and five months at Fairview Manor, Fairmont, NE. He resided with his mother and step-father (Daniel Schrock) in rural Shickley, Nebraska. On March, 1935 he was baptized at age 8, and was confirmed on April 6th, 1941 at Zion Lutheran Church in Shickley. He attended school at Martland and Shickley until the 10th grade, in 1945 he was called into service with the 511 Airborne Division of the Army. On January 26th, 1947

he married LaNora Mae Hopken of Martland. They farmed for several years and then moved to Shickley in 1952 where he worked for Alf's Well Drilling. He worked for Johnson's Feed Mill and the United Postal Service as a carrier in York, NE. In 1971 he took a correspondence course in upholstery and opened his own business which he operated until retirement in 1993. He was a school bus driver for Shickley Public Schools until 1994, he enjoyed the kids and watching their activities and athletics. In 1973 he started to work on his General Education Diploma and in 1976 he received his HS Diploma for the Shickley class of 1944. He valued education and made sure that his children had an opportunity to attend college. Allen and LaNora had three children Suzanne Galyen of Meadow Grove, Nebraska and Dr. Dennis Headrick of Lincoln, formerly of Plymouth, NE and infant child, Ella Headrick.

Allen loved fishing, traveling, camping, playing guitar and just visiting with people and spending time with his children and grandchildren. He was involved in the community of Shickley, Zion Lutheran Church, always looking for ways to help youth and others.

After LaNora's death in 2006, Allen met Patricia (Ohnesorge)Houck/Hobbs and they married in 2007 and lived in Geneva until his death.

“ With deepest sympathy to Allen's entire family. Many memories went thru' my mind when I read of his passing. Allen was one individual that always greeted me with a hug when I was back in Shickley. Kindness was his middle name. Many fun times when my grandparents and his mother and her family lived across the road from each other in Shickley. My God Bless each and everyone of you.
