“ I'm so sorry for the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort in your family, friends and the future promises in God's word. He has promised to end death forever and reunite us with our dear loved ones (Rev 21:4 & John 5:28, 29) May you continue to remember the fond memories of your loved one

“ I am keeping my Aunt Lois close in my heart and thoughts as she lays her sister to rest. My fondest memory of Aunt Barb is actually one she told me about and she said it with such love that I've held it dearly ever since...she was the one who carried me home from the hospital...it may not seem like much to anyone else but to me I could always envision this young woman cooing over me with so much love as she carried me in her arms...a truly lovely memory. I remember how much love and compassion Aunt Barb had and I know she was loved and loved back with a full heart...she will be missed.
