

Bryant Dean Mussman

May 19, 1989 - January 26, 2014

Bryant Dean Mussman was born to Rex Allen Mussman and Naomi Lynn (Clark) Mussman on May 19th, 1989 in Geneva, Nebraska and passed away January 26th, 2014 in Belvidere, Nebraska at the age of 24 years, 8 months and 7 days. He was the youngest of three children in his family.

Bryant grew up in Ohioa, Nebraska and lived there for the majority of his life. He recently moved to Geneva to live with his fiancée. Bryant attended grade school in Ohioa and Jr. High and High School at Bruning-Davenport Public School, from which he graduated in 2008. After graduation, he went on to attend Southeast Community College in Beatrice, Nebraska. Through high school Bryant worked for Scott Schelkopf at Cornhusker Farms. After returning from college he worked for Darrel and Matt Mosier as a farm production assistant in Shickley. He continued his farming career by returning to Cornhusker Farms to work for Scott Schelkopf. The Schelkopfs and Mosiers were more than bosses to him, they became like family.

Bryant was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Ohioa. He was baptized and confirmed at St. John's. Growing up, he was an active member of the youth group and served the church as an usher during his adult years.

Bryant loved to farm. Whether he was spending extra time at his job or helping out around the family farm, he truly enjoyed what he was doing.

Throughout his childhood and high school years, Bryant was very involved in 4-H and was passionate about working with cattle. Bryant was always creative in the kitchen and perfected the art of grilling steak. He enjoyed cooking for his family and friends. Bryant was a very outgoing and social person who could brighten anyone's day with his infectious smile. He recently experienced the joy of fatherhood and loved his new son Brantley Wyatt and fiancée Traci. Bryant was preceded in death by his uncle Lyle Mussman of Ohio and Grandfather David Clark of Geneva, and great grandfather Henry Mussman of Ohio.

He is survived by his son Brantley Mussman of Geneva, Fiancée Traci Larkins of Geneva, parents Rex and Lynn Mussman of Ohio, Brother Henry Mussman of Ohio, Brother and sister-in-law Chris and Holly Mussman of Bruning, Grandparents Dallas and Claire Ann Mussman of Geneva, Grandmother Linda Clark of Geneva, and Step-Grandmother Nina Clark of Geneva.

Funeral services were conducted from St. John's Lutheran Church in Ohio, Nebraska on Wednesday, January 29th with Pastor James Sells officiating. Pallbearers were Brady Larkins of Deshler, Scott Schelkopf of Geneva, Darrel Mosier of Shickley, Cody Houser of Lincoln, Justin Nathan of Geneva, and Brandon Jones of Hebron. Interment was in Ohio Public Cemetery with Farmer & Sons Funeral home in charge of arrangements. Memorials are directed to St. John's Lutheran Church in Ohio and a special college education fund will be established for Brantley Wyatt Mussman.

“ My heart aches for your family. How I loved to hear the many stories of your time with Bryant from spending countless nights after work helping him wash and groom his cow for fair to hearing about the fond memories you had of him growing up. There is no doubt that your family was one of love and "fun". May God give you strength and peace to face the days ahead! Praying for you during this difficult time. HUGS
