A Graveside Committal of Ashes for Camille was held on a Saturday, June 22, 2024 at 11:00 a.m. at Bohemian National Cemetery in Milligan, Nebraska.

Memorials are suggested to the American Cancer Society or Blue Valley Pet Rescue in Seward, Nebraska.

Camille Rose (Dvorak) Oliva, age 95, of Seward, Nebraska, passed away on April 9th, 2024 at the Ridgewood Care Center in Seward.

Camille was born on March 6th, 1929 on a farm southwest of Wilber, Nebraska, to John and Emma (Salda) Dvorak. She grew up on the farm and attended rural school District #8, and she graduated from Wilber High School in 1946.

She worked for the City of Wilber as a bookkeeper for 3 years. In 1949, she was married to Tom J. Oliva of Tobias, Nebraska, and they farmed in the Milligan and Tobias vicinities until they moved to Milligan in 1958. For 8 years, they owned and operated Tom's Place, a tavern and cafe. In 1965, they purchased the Stastny Insurance Agency and Income Tax Service. They operated this together until Tom's death on Dec. 17th, 1977. Camille stayed on in the business, and in 1979 was joined by Rosanne Jonas, her daughter-in-law to be. In May of 1980, Camille left Milligan and moved to Beatrice where she worked for the Farmer's Home Administration for several years.

Camille belonged to Lincoln Area Mensa and VFW Auxiliary in Beatrice.

Camille was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; two sisters, Sylvia and Joe Duba and Norma and Gene Rezabek; and her longtime friend and companion, Calvin King.

Camille is survived by her sons, Scott and Rosanne Oliva of Milligan, Nebraska and Mark and Diana Oliva of Milford, Nebraska; grandchildren, Rhiannon and Shaun Baumhover of Seward, Nebraska, Erik and Nickie Oliva of Gretna, Nebraska, Tara and Zane Brodeur, Cañon City, Colorado, Tom Oliva of Milligan, Nebraska, Travis and Courtney Oliva of Gretna, Nebraska; and great grandchildren, Makenna Baumhover, Liam and Paxton Oliva, Camille and Adaline Brodeur, and Lilly and Eisley Oliva.

Farmer & Son Funeral Home - June 22, 2024 at 01:59 PM

“ To All: We were so saddened to hear of Camille's loss. She was a part of our family for as long as I can recall - always attending our family reunions and functions along with Calvin. What a wonderful time we all had on Calvin's farm, going on hayrack rides and fixing meals together outdoors. I always enjoyed visiting with Camille - a truly kind and genuine lady. And we were "so" appreciative, too, of her kind care of Calvin in his latter years. Please know - our hearts go out to all of you as we share with you in her loss. Our deepest condolences to all. - Jacque Mankin & Barbara Aubert (cousins of Calvin King).
