

Chris J. Eitzmann

April 1, 1977 - December 29, 2021

Christopher John Eitzmann was born April 1st, 1977, in Belleville, KS to Scott and Connie Eitzmann. He was the eldest of five siblings. He spent his childhood in Byron, NE on a family farm. He loved his upbringing and always felt comforted by his small community, which he thought of as an extended family. He was a doting older brother and he cherished his role as protector for his younger siblings. As Chris grew on the farm, so did his love for the outdoors. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping, and found peace in wide open spaces. As an adult, Chris loved to recall stories for his kids about the shenanigans he and his siblings got into on the farm, from building forts, jumping off the roofs of outbuildings, racing go carts, and spear fishing in the Republican River.

Chris was baptized on April 24, 1977 and confirmed in faith on June 2, 1991 at the St. Peter's church in Byron, NE.

In high school, Chris emerged a leader both intellectually and athletically. Chris was proud to graduate Valedictorian of his high school class in 1995. It was also in high school that he developed his love for sports. His natural athleticism helped him to excel in any sport he chose to play. From basketball, to football, to track, he was a leader on and off the field. However, Chris's biggest love in sports was football. Though he started out playing only six man football, he was gifted enough to catch the eye of college recruiters from across the country. During his senior year, he was faced with the tough decision of playing either for Nebraska's beloved Tom Osborne and the Huskers, or following his adventurous heart to the east coast to attend Harvard and play for the Crimson.

In 1995, Chris made the 1600 mile trek to Boston to begin his journey at Harvard University, pursuing a degree in Psychology. While attending Harvard, Chris's football career flourished. Not only did he letter all four years, he was also nominated for First Team All Ivy League and All American Farm Team, in his senior season. Also, during his senior year, he was nominated captain of the team which he viewed as an immense honor. These accomplishments on the football field did not, however, detract from his devotion to his degree as he graduated Cum Laude in 2000.

After college, Chris set his sights on the NFL and started his professional football career with the New England Patriots. He played several seasons with the Patriots, the Packers, the Browns, and the Frankfurt Galaxy in NFL Europe. Some of Chris's most beloved memories from his college and professional football years did not necessarily have to do with games or practices, but instead with the many lifelong friendships he gained along the way.

In 2003, Chris moved back to Nebraska and married his high school sweetheart, Mikaela Kempf. They lived in Lincoln, NE where Chris began his career in finance with Merrill Lynch. His desire to excel led the couple to New Hampshire where he pursued his master's degree in business at Dartmouth College. Together there, they shared many adventures from skiing at Whistler to hiking in Costa Rica. Chris graduated from the program with honors in 2007.

After Chris's time at Dartmouth, the couple moved to Jamaica Plain, MA where he continued his career with Raptor Group and Putnam. During their time in Boston, the couple was blessed with four children, Coen, Asher, Seth, and Lila. It was when he had children that he discovered his true passion, being a father. As a Dad, what he wanted most was to encourage his children's curiosity and their understanding of unconditional love. Chris also cherished playing "Coach Dad" and passed on his love for sports to his kids.

Chris will leave a legacy of faith, leadership, perseverance, determination, and devotion to family and friends.

Chris was preceded in death by his father-in-law Michael Kempf of Shickley, NE; grandparents Martin and Lola Eitzmann of Byron, NE, grandmother Alvina (Flathman) and Werner Hoops of Byron, NE, grandfather John Flathman of Chester, NE; grand father-in-law Rowen Kempf of Shickley, NE and grand parents-in-law Chet and Billie Larson of Edgar, NE.

Chris is survived by his wife, Mikaela Eitzmann and children Coen, Asher, Seth and Lila Eitzmann of Shickley, NE; his parents, Scott and Connie Eitzmann of Hardy, NE; his brother Nathan (Megan) Eitzmann of Blue Earth, MN, sister Tracy Garcia of Lincoln, NE, brother Barry (Danae) Eitzmann of Seward, NE, brother Cody (Taylor) Eitzmann of Seward, NE; mother-in-law Jill (Mike) Cavanaugh of Apple Valley, MN; sisters-in-law Danielle (Doyle) Horwart of Burnsville, MN, Jaimee Mannix of St Louis, MO, Kirstyn Mannix of Minneapolis, MN; brothers-in-law Jordan (Molly) Mannix of St Louis, MO, and Kellen Mannix of Valdosta, GA; along with numerous nieces, nephews, family and friends.

A Funeral Service for Chris was held on Saturday, January 8, 2022 at 11:00 a.m. at Peace Lutheran Church in Deshler, Nebraska. Pastor Joseph Love presided over the Funeral Service. Julia Pohlmann & Marla Maschmann accompanied the congregation in the singing of “I Was There To Hear Your Boring Cry” and “In Christ Alone.” Julia also accompanied Heath Hoge in the singing of “Amazing Grace.” The recorded selection “I Am” was played as the final song.

Pallbearers for the service included Coen Eitzmann, Scott Larkee, Joe Mattson, Anthony Ackil, Artie Jones, Mike Shreve, Brian Lehmann, and Lance Kuhlmann. Honorary pallbearers included Asher Eitzmann, Seth Eitzmann, Lila Eitzmann, Nate Eitzmann, Barry Eitzmann, Cody Eitzmann, Brian Garrels, Heath Eitzmann, Judy Larkee, and Doyle Horwart.

Chris was cremated following the Funeral Service and his ashes will be placed in the Shickley Cemetery at a later date.

Farmer & Son Funeral Home was in care of the arrangements and online condolences can be left at www.farmerandsonfuneralhome.com

“ Hi Chris's Beautiful Family, I'm one of many of Chris's Tuck classmates (the only French classmate, via London). I remember Chris as one of the kindest and gentlest classmates. His presence and charisma was most impressive and you already know that. I am grateful to have known him at Tuck. I feel and share your loss on the other side of the Ocean and send all my sincere condolences to you all in this painful time. Laetitia

Met Chris at a rehab in Naples, FL in 2020. Didn't know who he was until later. Spent some alone time together that we shared. He seemed to care very much about me and my problems. Just so sorry that he's gone, he had a heart of gold, and cared about others, sadly, more than he cared for himself. Though I only knew him for a few weeks, I thank God I knew him

“ I have so many great memories of Chris, it's hard to know where to begin. Growing up, I always cherished our trips to the Eitzmann farm, where we did all the wonderful and mischievous things young boys like to do, such as hunting, shooting BB guns, wandering the hog lots, playing King of the Mountain on the hay bales, shooting fireworks, spear fishing on the river, and having mud fights in the pond. As we grew older, our adventures transitioned to camping at Lovewell and Cheney lakes as well as the Country Stampede. And I will never forget the infamous road trip to Table Rock Lake to pick up a car Chris bought. “The Bubble” struggled mightily driving through the Ozark Mountains fully-loaded with 5 people! Later in life, I enjoyed a ski trip with Chris in Vermont and a Sunday night football tailgate party at Foxboro Stadium.

So many great memories with my wonderful cousin! You were taken too soon. We will love and miss you always and will never forget you.

“ It's been a blessing to have known Chris for the past 15 years and an honor to call him friend. Among the highlights was visiting his farm; by the end of the week he'd taught me about Dicamba drift and much more, and taught my son how to drive a stick shift and tractor, repair an irrigation pivot, etc. Needless to say, a far cry from the financial world where we met (a lowlight was losing a bet to Chris and having to carry his Patriots helmet to meetings through Boston.) We once shared the stage at a chemical company's off-site and I was introduced AFTER Chris; obviously paled in comparison. Who wouldn't?! Just an all-around awesome guy.

My deepest sympathies to his family and friends. Rest In Peace Chris.

“ I am so sorry Chris is gone. We had so many fun memories growing up like throwing fireworks at the hogs, playing in the grain silo, going on vacations together to Worlds of Fun and Branson, and also watching Brian ride the go kart naked.... I never in my wildest imagination would have predicted how our lives would have played out but I know that Chris is with Jesus, a thought some may ridicule in our sophisticated times but in which we Christians can now rejoice because it is our only HOPE. Thank you to the Eitzmann family for a wonderful childhood. I can't say much more without breaking down. So I end with Amen. E'n so, Come Lord Jesus, quickly come.

“ On or around June(ish) 2002 the Fugawi Tribe (self proclaimed travel group of 4 Frankfurt Galalxy teammates) was on one of its legendary adventures in central Europe. Destination: Paris. Most would do what tourists in Europe do, take a train. Not us. We were doing it the old fashioned way, driving. Eitz was our driver. The Autobahn was just fine, and fast. We were cruising at 200 km/hr (aproximately 120mph and still regulated to the slow lane) and making good time through the German and French countryside listening to his self made CD of classic hits. (I remember this as if it happened last week and to this day, everytime I hear "Up on Cripple Creek" by The Band I think of Eitz.

So all was great and smooth... till we hit the streets of Paris.

Now, you would think the Eiffel Tower would be this great beacon to coordinate where you are in the city, but it is not as easy to see with the narrow streets and every structure being the same height. Also, it was daylight and not lit up.

So not having great landmarks to help guide us, we found ourselves taking a wrong turn, cursing our disbelief as we eventually entered a tunnel under the city, not knowing left from right, north or south in comparison to the streets above us.

Nor did we have any idea of which exit to choose to get us back on top and into daylight. But somehow, in true Fugawi fashion, Eitz decides to take an exit ramp and we miraculously popped out right where we needed to be. Thus starting one the countless, great (mis)adventures of the Fugawi Tribe.

He handled it like he was driving through the streets of Boston in his pick up truck. No big deal.

Football brought us together, but I can't remember much about the practices or the games. Truly, one of the most cherished times of my life and it wasn't because of football. It was this group: Mike, Ben and Chris.

My deepest condolences to Chris's family.

*Rest in peace my friend,

“ So many good memories of Chris! I so enjoyed watching Chris grow up. Little did I know that little Chris would grow into the good athlete that competed against my son in football, basketball and track. So many memories, I always enjoyed watching Chris. He always had such a nice, quiet smile. Chris will be missed by so many. Rest in peace, Chris. My prayers and sympathy to his family and friends.
