“ To Donna's husband Bob, her three dear daughters, and all her family. I was very happy to give Donna the rites of the Catholic Church in preparation for her death and for her spiritual consolation. Also to meet those of you whom I met. The first chance I got, after I heard of her death, I knelt down and prayed. And I was happy to look here on this website and to see her picture, and also to hear still more about her, than I heard before, from Carole and Don Prater. With my prayers, sympathy, warm regards, and best wishes,

“ Aunt Donna... an amazing woman who, while she lived half way across the country, was a huge part of my childhood. I remember getting so excited when my parents told us we were going to visit. I would look forward to playing with my cousins, and sleeping in the back bedroom of Uncle Bob and Aunt Donna's house. I still remember the huge meals she would make as we squeezed around her table. I love you! Love Marybeth
