She loved her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and they were her pride and joy. She also had a very special friend, Peanut her dog in which she took much delight in caring for.

“ I looked for Emma here since I had not heard from this family for many years. I hope she did not suffer and I know it was a happy time for her to join her husband Dale and son Richard in heaven. I lost track of so many of my relatives when I moved to Scottsdale Arizona but visited several years ago by taxi after completing a design assignment in Omaha. It was good to see everyone again. Janice spent her life with her Mom and I know the loss surely was a hard one after losing her brother Richard earlier. I am glad I got to see Janice, Emma, Allen, Linda and her children one last time. Emma was a straight shooter and if she didn't like you you definitely knew it. But she also had a good sense of humor and liked to laugh. God Bless the family. Diane Wadsworth Gray
