Gary Dean Schrock was born in Omaha Nebraska on November 11, 1959. He was raised by his parents, Forest and Luree Schrock on a farm near Bruning. He loved the farm animals and neighborhood friends. He attended Bruning Public Schools and Fairbury High School. Gary joined the U.S. Army on November 22, 1976, stationed in Monterey California. Following discharge, he married Melody Archer, in 1977 in Ong Nebraska. To them, a son, Timothy John Schrock was born. Gary worked as a mechanic and general laborer. The couple divorced and Gary moved from the Ong area to Hastings Nebraska and received his certificate in welding from the Central Community

College. He married Lorri Lacy in 1988. Gary became step-father to Tiffany Lacy and Shawn Lacy and loved the children as his own. Lorri and Gary lost an infant son, Tyler Wayne Schrock in February of 1989. The couple divorced and Gary moved to Grand Island where he worked in mechanics, motel maintenance and general labor until he became disabled and no longer able to work. He enjoyed his volunteer work through the Salvation Army and the camaraderie he felt with other veterans and staff when he received his medical care at the VA.

Gary loved cars, motorcycles, animals, children and people. His closest friend and companion was Gizmo, his Himalayan cat. Gary's health condition made placement in an assisted living facility necessary. Staff and friends in the facility always commented on his sense of humor and his big heart, always looking out for others and being there for them when they were hurting. Gary entered hospice care in April of 2017 and passed peacefully at the Waverly Care Center on August 11, 2017.

Gary was preceded in death by his Paternal Grandmother Pearl Schrock, Maternal Grandmother Marie Peterman and infant son, Tyler Wayne Schrock. He is survived by his parents, Forest and Luree Schrock of Bruning, Son, Timothy Schrock of McPherson, Kansas, Sister and Brother-in-law Linda and Ray Young of Eagle, Aunts Opal Matejka of Strang and Inez McPeck of Lincoln, Special Friend Lorri Lacy of Hastings, Stepchildren, Shawn and Tiffany Lacy of Hastings, nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
