Memorials are to be directed to the family to be designated at a later date.

George H. Volkmer was born to Ernest Volkmer and Emma (Reinsch) Volkmer on February 22, 1938 in Geneva, Nebraska, and passed away May 27, 2023 at his home in Geneva, Nebraska at the age of 85. He was one of 8 children in the family.

George graduated from Geneva High School and married Norva Reemts and to this marriage 3 children were born. Later George and Norva divorced. After their divorce George remained in Geneva and never remarried.

He worked for LJ Webb Construction until his retirement. After retiring full-time, he worked a few part-time jobs in agriculture.

George was a character and had a great sense of humor. He always tried to make you laugh no matter the circumstances.

Although he was retired, work never left his mind and he was always searching for his next business venture even at the age of 85.

He was proud of his garden and enjoyed taking care of it, from planting to harvesting the crop. He canned the majority of his bounty. He enjoyed going to auctions and buying items that would help him begin his new business venture he was planning at that time. George was a people person and enjoyed visiting with family and friends. His door was always open to anyone and everyone.

He was a member of the Geneva VFW and spent quite a bit of time there either volunteering or as a customer.

He loved his family and friends. He was well known for his hugs.

George was preceded in death by his parents, Ernest and Emma Volkmer; daughter, Brenda Volkmer; brothers, Ervin, Kenneth, John and Roger Volkmer; sisters, Eunice Chitwood and Delores Volkmer.

“ I can't stop now with more George memories: He was the Good Samaritan. When he saw anyone needing help, he always stepped up. And being the mechanic he was, he always got them back on the road. Never expecting anything in return. When on the road, George made friends easy. He never knew a stranger. His men, called him “mother”. Why, because he wanted to help each and everyone of them. Wow, he had such a big heart. Mike & Bob

He was the second hired employee and the last to leave after the Webb sale. After everyone picked up their equipment and the shop & yard was cleaned up, he told us thank you. What a loyal employee. They don't make 'em like that anymore. Beth “ George was sure a big part of the Webb family's. To begin with: when LJ decided to strike out on his own in 1969, George was the 2nd person he hired. George's employee number was #3. Something he was always very proud of, as was Larry. George worked for Webb's for all 40 years the company was in business. He was one big reason, the company has such a great reputation with the State of Nebraska. On more of a personal level, George was always the first to step up and help. His house and heart was always open to us.

RIP George, the Webb family.
