“ Angie and Robbie (and your families), I'm sorry that I couldn't be there to give you a hug or provide any source of comfort during this sad time. We will all remember Glen for many lovely things, but I will especially miss his great sense of humor and his laugh, which he passed along to both of you. Keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers.

*With much love,
Shandra Krasser*

“ I want to share my sincere sympathy to all of you! The loss of Glen will certainly be felt throughout the local area. He was always a friend to John and I. Isn't it a bit ironic how the past year has affected so many lives in so many ways! May his memory bring you comfort. Sincerely, Carol Dumpert

“ My memory of Glen T is not of a single word, but multiple of words, my respect for him is not for general purposes but because he lived as a true man. This man did a grand gesture for my family some many years ago and I will never forget it, as I know he did not either. Honorable is how he lives In my heart. His smile was happy and his eyes had shine. A mans man was Glen T. You will be missed but not forgotten.
