Gloria J. Gelster, 84, of Hebron died August 28, 2021 at Blue Valley Lutheran Homes in Hebron, Nebraska. Cremation was chosen and no services are scheduled.

Gloria was born February 28, 1937 at West Point, Nebraska to Clayton Redding and Adella Leitow Redding. She attended school in Burt County, Thurston County and Cuming County in Nebraska. She married Kenneth I Gelster on February 21, 1954 in Missouri Valley, Iowa. They had five children together. The couple lived in West Point, Nebraska where she worked at the West Point Nursing Home until she retired. She enjoyed working with the residents and took great pride in her work. She lived in West Point most of her adult life. In 2017, she moved to Geneva, NE to live closer to her daughter and granddaughter. She then moved to Blue Valley Lutheran Homes in Hebron, NE in 2020.

Gloria was a member of Grace Lutheran Church. She loved animals and enjoyed taking care of her pets. She loved being outdoors and enjoyed doing yard work. She also loved watching scary movies. Most of all, she loved her family. She enjoyed working on jigsaw puzzles and word searches. She enjoyed arts and crafts, reading, cooking and baking. She also enjoyed a good game of Bingo.

Survivors include her son, Scott (Monica) Gelster of Orange, California; daughters Deborah (Kirk) Kupecz of San Bernardino, California and Sue Gelster of Geneva, Nebraska; grandchildren Gregory Gelster, Lindsey Gelster, Christina Gelster and Alena Zahirovic; and great-grandchild, Noelani Gelster; sisters Donna Larson of Cedar Bluffs, Nebraska; Dorothy Fiscus of Valley, Nebraska; Marilyn Swanson of Pender, NE; Clarabelle Lindstedt of North Sioux City, South Dakota; Betty Cerny of Fremont, Nebraska; Evangeline Loreth of Brandon, Florida and brother David Redding of Colon, Nebraska.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Clayton and Adella Redding; husband, Kenneth I. Gelster; daughter, Charlotte Gelster and son, Kenneth F. Gelster.
