Harlan Walter Fangmeyer was born to Henry and Lorna (Gerberding) Fangmeyer on August 17, 1933 near Deshler, Nebraska, and passed away on November 23, 2023 at Fairview Manor in Fairmont, Nebraska at the age of 90.

Harlan grew up on a farm Northeast of Hubbell, Nebraska and was the second oldest of 4 children in the family. He was baptized in the Lutheran Church in Deshler, Nebraska on August 27, 1933 by Reverend Schwerin. On June 2, 1946, he was Confirmed in rural Hubbell, Nebraska at Zion Lutheran Church. Harlan graduated his 8th grade year from Boyd School District 29 in 1947 and then attended Reynolds High School, graduating in 1951. He joined our United States of America Army in December of 1954 as a Radar Operator in Alaska and was Honorably Discharged in 1956.

After completing his high school education, Harlan worked at the Naval Ammunition Depot in Hastings, Nebraska one winter. He then worked at Ford Garage in Hebron, Nebraska until a Tornado destroyed that building. With the Ford building being destroyed he decided to take a job working at a Service Station in Hebron, Nebraska until he was drafted in to the Army. After serving our country Harlan worked at Beech Aircraft in Wichita, Kansas for one year then worked on a farm with Arthur Behrends for Mary Krenke. Harlan then attended college at Milford Technical School in 1959 where he excelled in electronics graduating in 1961.

On June 4, 1960, he married the love of his life, Alice Shepek, at First Presbyterian Church in Narka, Kansas and to them 3 children were born; Allen Lee, Harlan Brent and Susan Ann.

After completing his college degree, he began working in TV and radio repair in Geneva, Nebraska. He then took a job with Kaneb Pipeline, as a summer job first, which then lead to his long career with Kaneb Pipeline. He worked at several positions working his way up the ladder to Area Superintendent working in Denver, Colorado and then back to Geneva, Nebraska until his retirement on January 31, 2001, working for Kaneb for 37 ½ years.

Harlan is survived by his wife, Alice Fangmeyer; sons, Allen Fangmeyer and Brent (Diane) Fangmeyer; daughter, Susan (Tony) Reinsch; 7 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Henry and Lorna (Gerberding) Fangmeyer and daughter-in-law, Eileen Fangmeyer.
