

John A. Power

June 11, 1940 - May 1, 2021

John Power was born June 11, 1940, in Grand Island, Nebraska, to Tracil and Nella Power. He died peacefully at his home May 1, 2021, at the age of 80 years. He was the youngest of 6 children.

His life was spent in the Gibbon, Nebraska, area until he graduated from Gibbon High School in 1958. He then attended the University of Nebraska, where he was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Upon graduation with a business degree, he joined the US Navy and attended Officer Candidate School in Newport, Rhode Island. He and his wife, Nancy, began their military experience in Athens, Georgia where he attended the Naval Supply School. The remainder of his military career was spent stationed out of San Diego, California with deployments on an attack transport to Vietnam.

He and Nancy returned to Nebraska after John's stint in the Navy. They raised three daughters. It was their desire and decision to live in beautiful Nebraska for the remainder of their married lives. John enjoyed his career as an Independent Insurance Agent in Buffalo County before relocating to Geneva. He continued insurance work at New Frontier Insurance. He was active in the United Methodist Church, Lions Club, Arbor Foundation, and American Legion.

John spent many years announcing sporting events for the Gibbon Buffaloes and Geneva Wildcats/Panthers. He was an avid Husker fan, birder, golfer, beer brewer, traveler, and loved planting and nurturing trees. His favorite past-time was playing bridge and beating his wife at cribbage. He was meticulous in grooming his lawn and landscape. It was a source of pride to watch his daughters participate in sporting events, and icing on the cake was traveling to Lawrence, Kansas where he was a spectator at his grandson's KU track meets. For 30 years on Sundays you could find him singing in the UMC choir standing right beside his special friend Ray Nichols.

John was preceded in death by his parents, his brothers Ron, Leroy, Royal, and a twin sister, Jane Wiles.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Nancy (Mercer), daughters Becky Atkinson (husband Dennis), Carrie Power, and Libby Power-Leybman (husband Gary), grandson Braden Kleinschmidt, sister LaBerta Olson, and many nieces and nephews.

“ Snapshots of John:
John took great glee in whupping "the women" in card games--no mercy was his mantra and he'd laugh as he'd count in cribbage. I remember his kindness and wonderful ability to make people feel special. Maybe it was his quiet calm and ability to listen. John never met a tree, or bird, or cat that he didn't nurture.(lucky Ringo, lucky Polly)
I also remember his affinity with garlic and when he'd try new recipes on the grill, marinating meats for many hours.
He was a special man who always gave so much.

“ I am Eddie Powell, John's first cousin. I grew up in Omaha but spent many hours with the Power family. I am two years older than John and Jane. John and I were close to the same size and we had a strong family resemblance. More than once when John and I were together, someone came up to us and said, "You must be the twins."

Whenever possible, I spent the week of the Buffalo County Fair in Gibbon so I could help John and Jane with their calf exhibits. We would spend all day at the fairgrounds. For some reason, one day the ferris wheel operator let us keep riding. It was great fun, until we got sick and lost our lunch. I haven't so much as looked at cotton candy ever since.

My wife and I named our youngest son, John, after my cousin because he meant so much to me. The time I spent with all the Powers, especially John, are the fondest memories of my youth.
