“ She was the best mom you could have. Her and dad taught us the importance of family and all staying together as family and friends. She was one of the main people who taught me the importance of listening to music of all sorts. She and I would listen to anything from Van Halen, meatloaf, the Go-go's, Richard Clayderman , to Bobby Vinton. It didn't matter what it was. She will be missed by many Michael

My memory of Judy was of a classy intelligent lady who loved to laugh and have fun. I enjoyed the many pancake breakfasts we had when we were neighbors at their lake house. She will love forever in our hearts.

“ John, Lisa, Joe, Darrell, Mike and families. My deepest sympathy with the loss of Judy. Such a kind and appreciative soul. It is so hard losing one's parents. I pray that all your memories and family stories help bring peace at this most difficult time. I can just see the huge smile on JJ's and Judy's faces when she appeared at those pearly gates.
