She attended Clay Center Public Schools and graduated with the class of 1965. Lila worked various babysitting jobs around Clay Center and worked at Flossie's Café in Clay Center. She also cleaned houses for multiple families in the area. When she wasn't working, she spent time at the local swimming pool with her friends.

Lila enjoyed ceramics, embroidery, and car racing. She enjoyed the days and evenings spent watching her grandsons' Figure 8 Race and also enjoyed watching her son, Corey, race his lawnmower. She loved all animals, especially dogs. She enjoyed raising a wide variety of plants. One of her most enjoyable pastimes was sending cards to family and friends, no matter what the occasion might be, just to let them know she was thinking about them. Her favorite music to pass the time was country western music.

Lila is preceded in death by her parents, Clifford Hill and Christina Hill; son, Corey Herman; and brother, Vernon Hill.

She is survived by her husband, Jerry Herman; son, Jeff Herman; granddaughter, Jessica (Logan) Thomsen; grandson, Jake (Danielle) Herman; great-grandchildren, Zaden, Zander, Kennedy, Oaklynn, and Grayson; brother, Ronald Hill; and sisters, Susan Alspaugh and Melody Kolbets.

“ I have know Lila for a very long time, and I got to see her, and hang out with her when I lived in Geneva. I had the pleasure of fixing her hair, how ever she wanted at the time. But we spent most of the time laughing, she was a very fun & funny gal, to be around. I pray that she is out of pain, now, so she can rest in peace!.. Condolences to the family!!! 🙏 + 🕯

“ Lila was a special woman. Always had a smile on her face. I talked to her after her first cataract surgery, she said why didn't anyone tell me my house was so dusty. Lila said I wonder what i will see after they do my other eye. I loved her sense of humor. She will be truly missed. RIP
