

Marjorie J. "Marj" Dowdy

April 9, 1935 - September 24, 2018

Marjorie Jeanne Dowdy was born in Geneva, Nebraska on April 9, 1935 to Charles and Nora (Miller) Heath. She passed away on September 24, 2018 at the age of 83 years, 5 months, and 15 days from injuries sustained in a tragic car accident near Shickley, Nebraska. She was the younger of two children.

She grew up on a farm west of Geneva. Marj was a 1953 graduate of Geneva High School and attended Nebraska Wesleyan for two years. Marj met Max through her brother, Lowell when Max and Lowell were drafted into the army.

Marj and Max were married on August 21, 1955. They lived near Carleton, NE for 50 years and were blessed with two sons, Stan and Doug Dowdy. Marj loved her husband, children, grandkids and great-grandkids. There was always some sort of fresh cookies or food around for them and she was always ready for a visit from family and friends. She was always present in her family's lives and rarely missed an activity. She was an active member of the Bethel Church of the Brethren and played the piano there for over 60 years..

Marj also taught piano for over 60 years to many generations of children in the local area. She was a wonderful housewife and worked at Parkview Nursing Home in Deshler for over 30 years. She loved going to the Shickley School to read with the elementary students, and visit her little friends in both daycares. Marj and the kids found so much joy in each other, and they called her Grandma Marj.

Marj was guided by her faith in Jesus Christ. Her faith carried her through life in all its ups and downs. She served the Lord faithfully through her kindness and love for her family and friends. She will be deeply missed by all that knew her.

Marj was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Nora; daughter-in-law, Kelly Dowdy; and brother, Lowell Heath.

Marj is survived by her husband of 63 years, Max of Shickley, Nebraska; her children, Stan Dowdy and his wife Andrea and their children, Luke and Brock of Denver, Colorado; Doug Dowdy of Carleton, Nebraska and his children, Jordan Dowdy and his wife April and their children, Madelynne and Samuel of Lincoln, Nebraska, Justin and his wife Jillian and their children Jackson and Jamie of Gothenburg, Nebraska, and Jessica Schoenholz and her husband Alex and their children Garrett and Shaun of Bruning, Nebraska; sister-in-law Jo Ann Heath of Geneva, Nebraska; brothers-in-law and sisters-in law Don Dowdy and wife Marla of Carleton, Nebraska, Dale Dowdy and wife, Christy of Virginia, and John Dowdy and wife, Doris of Hawaii; and nieces, nephews, and friends.

Sara Arens accompanied the congregation in the singing of "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" and "Great Is Thy Faithfulness." She also played an instrumental version of "How Great Thou Art."

“ Marj was truly a wonderful person. She was so appreciative for the simple fact that we were neighbors. When she saw our first garden in the neighborhood she said she had to get Max and drive him by so he could see it. We shared garden produce with them and she shared baked goods with us. Yum. We traded events in our lives and family stories-many at Wednesday coffee at the Library. She adored the daycare next door and the little people that she shared treats with. The last time that I drove through the alley, Marj was in the backyard with pruning shears in one hand and a big smile and wave as I passed by. That was a precious smile that I'll remember for a long time.

“ I worked with Marj at Parkview for a few years while I was in college. She was such a caring person who believed in me and cared about me like I was one of her own grandchildren. We sent each other Christmas cards every year and kept in touch through email. I'll cherish her friendship always. God bless.

So sorry for your loss. She loved serving her Lord and her church which is evident by all her music. Now she's serving with Him in her heavenly home where we can join her someday.
