“ Uncle Max was a wonderful man. He was my fathers best friend. They served in the Army together, and Max would come to visit Dad, Mom and all of us kids every summer in Kansas. Even though he wasn't related by blood, he was and always will be our "Uncle Max". So many fond memories of him will forever be held in our hearts. Rest in Peace Max.

“ Uncle Max was a tall man with a big heart and kind soul. My father Lowell's siblings each portrayed an amazing resilience and a strong commitment to family, friends and work ... despite the challenges of their time. Max now joins them in solitude and enduring joy.
