“ I have many fond memories of Merna and Harry. She hosted a baby shower in their home on S.13th, 40 plus years ago.
The most harrowing was her heart attack at lunch at Dr.Pierson's. I descended upon him as he returned to the office unaware of the event.
She told stories of her children and grandchildren through the years of whom she was most proud. Purchases by Harry created laughter at lunch.
She was dear and loved by many.
She is missed.

“ mom

*For whom most of our lives we take for granted,
Not often singing her praises as in a ballad.
For all her hard work and sacrifice throughout her life she does endure,
One would think some recognition would be the cure.
As we are young rather than giving her a moment of brief satisfaction, through all our life's activities, busyness and distraction.
We know some simple appreciation would suffice,
But we tend to do just the opposite by our vice.
We just might be able to turn mom's heart,
By way of an occasional smile we begin to do our part.
However, as we learn and grow,
through time and trial as we go.
By God's grace we begin to recognize all the goodness,
a humble realization of her saintliness.
A mom is surely someone special,
thus with love we begin to sprinkle.
Because of experience we come to know and respect,
her modest and meek selfless giving has had its affect.
With all our heart of mom we become thoughtful and thankful,
She's one for which we're truly grateful . . .*

We thank God for the gift of you, mom!

We love you Mom
