

Michael R. "Mike" Johnson

January 29, 1946 - January 30, 2026

A Memorial Service for Mike was held Monday, February 16, 2026 at 10:32 a.m. at the United Methodist Church in Geneva, Nebraska. Kim Dunker presided over the Memorial Service.

A Private Family Graveside Committal of Ashes was held in the Geneva Public Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to the Fillmore Central School Foundation - Theatre Project, Geneva Rescue Squad, or the Geneva Senior Center Foundation.

Michael R. Johnson was born on January 29, 1946, in York, Nebraska, to Sheldon and Mary (Barbur) Johnson. He passed away on January 30, 2026, at CHI St. Elizabeth Hospital in Lincoln, Nebraska, at the age of 80 years and one day.

Mike was an only child and was raised on the family farm northwest of Geneva, Nebraska. He attended country school, District 81, from second through eighth grade and was active in 4-H, where he showed livestock. He attended the Congregational Church and was confirmed in 1956.

As a child, Mike treasured time spent with his Grandpa Jim Barbur, fishing at the Boys Pond and helping at Barbur Floral. Fond memories included pounding nails into benches and planting seeds in anticipation of the coming spring.

Mike attended Geneva High School, where he was involved in drama and speech activities. These experiences helped shape him into a natural leader, and he served as President of the Class of 1964. During his senior year, he was crowned King of 4-H and was also a winner at the Nebraska American Legion State Speech Contest.

Following high school, Mike attended Doane College in Crete, Nebraska, and later transferred to the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, where he majored in agriculture. He ultimately decided to return home to Geneva to farm with his father.

In 1975, Mike married the love of his life, Virginia Allgood. Together they raised three sons. In addition to farming, Mike worked during the winters in carpentry, cable installation, and measuring fields for the ASCS Office in Geneva.

After farming with his dad until 1983, Mike discovered a passion for crop insurance adjusting and became an auditor for AM AG. This opportunity required the family to move to Missouri Valley, Iowa, in 1989. While there, Mike quickly rose through the ranks and became National Claims Manager for AM AG. In 2000, he received the AM AG National President's Award.

Following the sale of AM AG, Mike entered the banking business, which brought the family back to Sutton, Nebraska, in 2004. He worked at City State Bank, later known as Cornerstone Bank.

Mike later became an independent insurance agent and especially enjoyed working with local farmers on their crop insurance needs. Much of his success came from the strong relationships he built with his customers. After opening Eagle Pointe Insurance in Sutton, his blue shirts, suspenders, rolled-up jeans, and flat hat became his signature look. Mike sold Eagle Pointe Insurance in 2024 but continued to support the office until his official retirement in January 2026.

Mike found great joy in being involved in his community. He was active in several local organizations, including the Sutton Lions Club, the Masons, the Shrine, and the Hillbilly group associated with the Shrine. He served as President of the Sutton Chamber and participated on numerous church boards and committees. While Mike didn't have many traditional hobbies, he enjoyed searching & purchasing things online —often buying in bulk “just in case.” Above all, his greatest passion was helping those connected to his insurance work.

Mike loved holidays, family trips, and any opportunity for the whole family to be together. Special memories included Disney Cruises, a Royal Caribbean cruise, and family vacations to Branson, Missouri. Another thing he enjoyed was spending time having coffee with friends at the Geneva Senior Center.

Mike is survived by his wife of 50 years, Virginia Johnson of Geneva, Nebraska; his sons and their families: Cory (Laura) Johnson and his children from a previous marriage Taylor, Mason, and Clayton of Omaha, Nebraska; Scott (Stephanie) Johnson and their children Ellie and Simon of Minneapolis, Minnesota; and Adam (Melanie) Johnson and their children Amelia and Fletcher of Lincoln, Nebraska. He is also survived by his brother-in-law Steve Allgood of Geneva, Nebraska; sister-in-law Vicki Allgood of Lincoln, Nebraska; nephews Eric (Angie) Allgood and their children Jackson and Jacy of Henderson, Nebraska, and Aaron (Amy) Allgood of Albion, Nebraska; as well as aunts, uncles, cousins, and a host of friends.

Mike was preceded in death by his parents, Sheldon and Mary Johnson; grandparents Albert and Cecil Johnson and Jim and Louise Barbur; his in-laws, Charlie and Dorothy Allgood; and brother-in-law Stan Allgood.

“ Mike became a part of my life 20 years ago through work, he was patient encouraging and held me to a high standard. He was one few people to give me second chances to correct my mistakes without malice. His patience, loyalty and advice over the years, heavily informed how I have treated those like my younger self.

“ I really can't say I knew Mike well, but met the family at AJ & Melanie's a few times. I always enjoyed talking and listening to him. But what stands out most to me is his son, AJ, my nephew by marriage. If AJ is a younger reflection of Mike, then Mike was pretty special. I admire AJ's dedication to his family, and to Christ, and his work. My heart breaks for the Johnson family, but may you all be comforted by sweet memories. You are in my prayers.

“ Mike was deeply loved and sure will be missed. I have fond childhood memories of fun times at the Johnson home in Missouri Valley, Iowa, spending “mischievous” quality time with my best friend (Scott). Mike was always able to make me giggle and was always so welcoming and warm. I will never forget that. I always loved his sense of humor and his sarcasm. He was the best. Scott doesn’t know this until now, but Mike may have been half the reason I hung around so much. 😊
Condolences and lots of love to the family.
