On November 2, 2021, Norma Lichtenberg, gained her wings... Heaven watch out.

Norma was born on October 18, 1949 to Terrence & Margaret (Hoven) McGrath in Hoven, SD. She grew up in a large family, where her strong values were instilled. Norma embraced her hefty family. This was evident in the shenanigans that her and her siblings would get into and the adventures they shared, that lasted throughout her whole life.

Norma moved to Aurora, NE where she hit the biggest jackpot and met John (Bill) Lichtenberg. She cashed in and they were married on June 22, 1971. Together they raised two sons, Michael and Joseph.

Norma worked for area grain elevators most of her life. From this she made many long-lasting friendships over coffee. She was a past member of the Grafton First Responders for years and minus the stop sign incident, had a very successful career in it.

Norma loved people and knew no stranger. She could talk to anyone, always had a story to tell and an opinion to share. She also loved the game of Black Jack. She would rarely lose and could call every dealer by their first name in the casino.

Grateful to have shared her life: husband John (Bill) Lichtenberg, Grafton, NE; son Michael Lichtenberg, Lincoln, NE; Joe (Rhonda) Lichtenberg, Omaha, NE; 5 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren; Sisters: Sheila Hoke, Sturgis, SD; Janice (Pat)

Joynt, Sturgis, SD; Sandra Pfiefer, Aurora, NE; Brothers: Greg McGrath, Hoven, SD; Matt (Gloria) McGrath, Saskatoon, Canada; Sister In-law Patricia Bartlett, Many nieces and nephews that she loved dearly.

Those welcoming her in Heaven are; Parents: Terence & Margaret McGrath; Mother and Father In-law: John and Gertrude Lichtenberg; Sisters: Noel Doerr, Marge Potter, Marcelline Hunnel; Brothers: Terry McGrath, Patrick McGrath, Francis McGrath & Robert McGrath; Brother In-law: Marvin Bartlett.

“ My cousin Normie was a very special person. She taught me and her sister Noel a lot of good and bad things along with her other sister's. But mostly how much cousins take care and love each other thru whatever is thrown our way. I cherish the memories of Normie and all of her siblings. Praying for peace for everyone

“ Norma and I went back to our adult softball teams, but became best friends about 30 years ago. Reading about her shenanigans in the obituary, truly brought back some memories....and her adult shenanigans. Never vicious, just hilarious. As Bill can testify, her favorite saying when we embarked on a road trip, was... we'll be home by 9. She merely neglected to say what day! Normie, I promise you I'll be home by 9, for one last round of blackjack with you..... I just don't know what day.
