Pamela L. "Pam" Wetton, 77, of Geneva, Nebraska passed away on March 20, 2026, at Fairview Manor in Fairmont, Nebraska.

Pam was born on November 6, 1948, in Geneva, Nebraska, to Erwin and Caroline (Kubes) Bures. She attended District 2 School through the seventh grade and later graduated from Exeter High School.

Pam was united in marriage to Ronald Maier in 1968, and to this union one son, Jason Maier, was born on April 26, 1972. She later married Robert "Bob" Wetton in 2001.

Pam spent most of her life working in retail, a career she truly enjoyed. She especially loved her time at Blue Valley in Geneva, where she made many lasting connections.

She had a true love for life and was known for her "can-do" attitude, always pushing through even the toughest times. Pam was a collector at heart, finding joy in gathering treasures of all kinds, including an impressive collection of cookbooks. She enjoyed cooking and listening to classic rock music, with “Free Bird” by Lynyrd Skynyrd being one of her favorite songs.

Pam was not a typical grandmother—she lived life in her own unique and spirited way, always finding fun and meaning in her experiences. She deeply loved her family, especially her son, and always made time for those she cared about. She also held a special place in her heart for her beloved dog.

She is survived by her son, Jason Maier; step-sons, Brett (Vanessa) Wetton and their children Loka, Evelyn, and Alta, James Wetton, and Andrew (Katrina) Wetton and their children Seth, Eric (stepson), Patrick and Alice; sister, Donna Sorenson; niece, Amy (Tony) Wurtz; great-niece, Taylor Wurtz; and great-nephew, Austin Wurtz; granddaughters, Bailey (Zack) Hopkins and Patience (Jake) Werner; great-grandchildren, Madison and Wesley Hopkins, Maicy, TJ, and Dakota Salyer, and Rayna and Shaylee Werner; as well as many cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Erwin and Caroline Bures; and her husband, Robert “Bob” Wetton.

Pam will be remembered for her strength, her individuality, and the love she shared with those around her.
