“ I worked with Pat for 42 years at the gas company. We both were "youngens" when we started. Pat was always well dressed and her "hair was never out of place" she was always ready to help with a special project and be involved in group things. Her eyes were always "shining" and a smile on her face. she was a good and lovely person. My pleasure to have known her. sincerely Lloyd weathermon.

Pat was one of the good ones. Earth has lost an apprentice for all things good and great. However, heaven has gained a precious member in body of Christ. God bless you give rest in peace. Deborah Kellam
