He returned home to join his father and brother in farming. In 1977, his father incorporated the family farms and hog operation with Perry and his brother, Steve. Perry

His life was centered around his family and friends. He was a very loving son, brother, and uncle. He was very proud of his nephews and nieces. He enjoyed the outdoors and country living. Farming brought him great pleasure. Perry's greatest interest in life was following sports and the worldly news. The Nebraska Cornhuskers were his favorite team. Perry had pleasure teaching his young nephews Nick, Cole, and Jared farm life. Later in life, traveling to California to visit his sister, Kim, nieces Krissy and Katie, and all the attractions California had to offer was one of his favorite past times. Teasing his sister in law, Cindy, and her daughters, Jessica and Stacy also put a smile on his face. Perry's favorite past time was using his cell phone.

Family and friends closest to him, especially, Barry, would hear from him often to chat about farming, the weather, sports, etc. Perry's most important accomplishment was providing comfort and care for Mom. Perry was dedicated to taking care of Mom and seeing to her everyday needs.
