He was commonly known as 'Pete' to most people who knew him, but when he was growing up he was known as 'John' to family and friends.

Pete's family moved several times when he was younger. They finally settled in Wichita, Kansas. He graduated from Wichita East High School with the class of 1959.

Pete enlisted in the Air Force on November 29, 1961, and he was honorably discharged on July 8, 1965 after serving in Vietnam. He met Carole Richards while stationed in Lincoln, Nebraska and they were married on October 19, 1963 at the First Congregational United Church Of Christ in Geneva, Nebraska. After returning from Vietnam, Pete and Carole located in Boulder, Colorado, and a son, John, was born to this union on September 4, 1966.

Pete was employed at Ball Aerospace in Boulder as an Electro-Mechanical Inspector for 27 years. Some of the many programs he worked on were the Space Telescope, Space Shuttle Cargo Door Actuators and the Guidance Systems.

Pete and his family moved to Lafayette, Colorado in 1972. They resided there until 1998 when they moved to Kearney, Missouri for a year, before finally locating in Carole's hometown of Geneva, Nebraska.

Pete was an assistant Cub Master when his son was in Cub Scouts. He was also a member of the American Legion while living in Lafayette and a member of the VFW while living in Geneva.

Pete was preceded in death by his father and mother Clarence S. "Pete" and Orvena M.
