“ Hi Shroyer family, especially Sherri and Myra. I'm not sure how God led me to the site where I learned of your mother's death. I always enjoyed her and how well she taught you girls to be on top of this. I always enjoyed having you both in FCCLA/FHA. I wasn't sure how to get in touch with you so I thought I would send my condolences here. Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers. Mrs. Fisher

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to your family. She was a great lady and a wonderful nurse. I always hoped if I was ever in the hospital she was the nurse on duty. She made my stays there bearable. Rest in peace.

“ My sisters and I want to express our deepest sympathy to Rachel, Bob, and the rest of the family. We're so sorry for your loss. It's comforting to know that Naidene will be welcomed home to heaven by Jesus, and the arms of her dad Ron, grandma Myra.... and so many others who've gone on before her. Just wish she didn't have to go so soon. Save a place for us, Naidene.

“ You will be greatly missed. I will miss our private facebook talks, your experience, strenght and hope that I hadn't heard yet. I will say that apparently I have heard all I was supposed to. You had a lot of strenght and never gave up. You were a fighter and touched a ton of lives in all the areas you were giving. We miss you already. I remember when the last time when Bob had to give you CPR and we were talking when you got home and I said "well God isn't done with you yet, your job isn't done here" and you agreed...you must have touched a few more lives and finished your job here. You will always remain in our hearts!!!! Love you lots...to another beautiful Angel above:)

“ I will truly miss Naidene at work,rapping on the desk or clapping when she wanted to get my attention. Always so expressive without words,especially when her batteries were low! I knew her from the beginning of her nursing career and always felt she knew her stuff! Loved to exchange stories of kids,family and critters when we had time. Had to rib her about her Kansas team and she gave it right back about mine!
