Robert Lee Kowalski was born to John Roman Kowalski and Anna Tekla (Curtis) Kowalski on April 7, 1933 in Elba, Nebraska. He passed away on October 14, 2021, at Bryan Medical Center West in Lincoln, at the age of 88, 6 months and 7 days.

Bob graduated from Elba High School in 1951. After school, he joined the Navy and served for 4 years in the Naval Construction Battalion in Subic Bay in the Philippines. He was very proud to serve his country as a Seabee.

After his time in the military, he returned home and attended the University of Nebraska-Lincoln for two years. He married the love of his life, Loretta Neville, on August 24th, 1963 in York, Nebraska. The couple started their married life in Saint Paul, and then moved to a small acreage near Alda, shortly after, Bob started at New Holland, where he worked for 27 years as a machinist. Bob was very proud to have built the home (Alda Ranch) in which he and Loretta raised their four children.

Bob enjoyed reading, traveling, spending time with his family and working on his yard. His greatest joy in life was being husband, Dad and Grampy. He made it to almost every game, fair, or school activity of his children and grandchildren. He and Loretta also enjoyed many years of traveling to Nebraska football games with friends. To friends and family, he was known as Blackcloud, B.O.B, Grampy, and Bobcat.

After retiring early, Bob and Loretta began a new adventure as winter Texans. They enjoyed 19 years traveling south, making many friends and wonderful memories. In 2000, they sold the Alda house and moved to rural Red Cloud, where they spent the next 21 years on their "ranch".

He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers Don, John (Butch), and Dean; and infant sons Lee and Christopher.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 58 years, Loretta Kowalski, of Carleton,

Nebraska; children Kate (John) Lange of Bruning, Nebraska, Joni (Jerry) Johnson of Hebron, Nebraska, Kevin (Kris) Kowalski of Wilber, Nebraska, ,Laurie (Allan) Grell of Omaha, Nebraska; grandchildren Jared, James, and Samantha Lange, Claire and Rachel Johnson, Garrett, Wyatt, and Cassidy Kowalski, Josh Walsh, Alyssa, Hannah, and Ryan Grell; and great-granddaughter, Journee.
