“ To Jo, Kris, Jason, your families and all of Sandys friends, we are surrounding you all in prayers for comfort and peace. We are so sorry for your loss. We will keep you in our thoughts throughout the day and pray it is a beautiful day of reflection and celebration of Sandy's life. Now, You know you gotta tell some jokes she wouldn't want everyone to be so serious. I remember when my mammaws funeral got pretty somber she told a funny story to try to make us laugh. It was dead silent, she was just getting to know us, it was a horrible loss so it was that awkward silence and she just starting telling us about....hitting a deer! Which honestly looking back is funnier now after getting to know her and the deer magnet she was! Dad used to joke it was an annual tradition for her to take one out he swore she closed her eyes and steered right for them lol. The two of them could really make you laugh the way they could banter back and forth. I'm thankful they both had great sense of humors. I am also thankful they had the church and community to help and be involved in, I know they both enjoyed that very much. And I'm thankful for family that surrounded them. I wish the miles would have been fewer for my family and I. Thankfully we have the promise of heaven. God bless you all Love Charissa, Philip and Ariana May
