“ Charlotte and family--Dave and I were so sad to learn of Stuart's illness and death. We enjoyed being your neighbors at Pulpit Rock those many years ago when your kids were little. God wrap you in love and peace as Stuart now is.

“ Char and family, Nancy and I send our deep sympathy to you all as we hear the news of Stuart entering life eternal. I remember a hot summer day 1997 when a family with ag connections from Nebraska arrived on campus at Pulpit Rock. It was the beginning of coming to know some very fine people. Your family- each and every one- are treasured in our hearts as neighbors at WTS and friends always. Stuart was a joy in the challenging classes we shared on campus. The way Stuart lifted our hearts with his hearty laugh and steady presence was a gift to us all. He could find humor in many things- I remember our dog Spencer licking Slinky's head till it looked like it was a special spiked hair do- Stuart made us smile with his reaction. The reunions we guys had were memorable and made so much better when Stuart was able to come! He just had a way of adding to the joy of the day- not making anything about him- just being present and participating with a joyful heart. We've had a death in our family as well-our fifty year old nephew, a police Lieutenant in Maryland. We'll be attending services for him and won't be able to be with you in Nebraska. Please know you are in our hearts as we pray for the Holy Spirit to comfort you one and all as services are held and the days bring a new reality to your family. God be with you, tend to your needs and bless you now and always!

You all were a blessing to us also. The congregation at Bancroft was so great at "training up" pastors (and their families). We frequently reminisce about our Bancroft days.

“ I am sorry for your loss. We are holding you in prayer. As one of the new pastors' on the block, I have really appreciated the welcome I received from Stuart and the encouragement as well. He was an inspiration to many as he "fought the good fight." To all the family, I pray for God's comfort and peace and the assurance we have of eternal life in Christ.

I too would listen to his service on Sunday's. He first had my father's funeral Vernon Johnson (Nov. 2004) and then my step mother's (Lola Dirks Johnson). I enjoyed his Sunday services and prayed he would win his battle over cancer. I'm so sorry for your loss!❤️🙏 Marge Bedlan
