“ I was so blessed to know Terry for almost 12 years. We would have lots of outings together, including drive-thru meals at Burger King, one of his favorite places, going bowling, fishing, flying kites or just going for car rides in Lincoln. We talked every day by phone, often several times. I will miss his phone call and also always reminding me to set my clocks on daylight savings time.

Terry was a wonderful person and helped make me a better person, too. My prayers to his family and many, many others who loved him and were also his friend.
