“ *Just know Hillview Drive, Texarkana, TX has not been the same since January 9
When I visit my parents' home, there is truly a void, as I knew the guy on the other side of the fence for over half my life!*

He always offered a graciously peaceful demeanor. His smile will forever hold a fond memory in my heart.

May God shed an abundance of comfort and understanding during this difficult time. The SON will shine again, as better days are definitely ahead!

“ We knew Tim for more than thirty years; he lived next door to us. Our children and grandchildren knew him as well. Although some people on our street didn't know Tim's name, they knew him as the guy who frequently rode his bicycle.

Tim lived a quiet, humble and peaceful life. Some days, he would just wave or say hello; but there were times when he held lengthy conversations. When Tim talked, a wealth of knowledge and pleasantries flowed from within. Growing a small garden was one of his favorite past times.

We could go on and on, but space nor time would permit that. However, it would be remiss of us to not mention the indisputable truth- Tim was Tim no matter where he was. And, to know Tim was to love Tim!

We continue to be deeply saddened by the demise of our dear neighbor and friend. Although Tim is no longer physically with us, memories of him are still alive. Visions of him riding his bicycle, working in his yard, waving hello, etc. and the sound of his voice hold a special place in our hearts.

*Rest in love, Tim Thomasen

“ To the Family of Tim:

My sincere condolences on the loss of your son and brother. I met Tim through my brother Darrell Nelson who passed last year. Tim was a very quiet spoken guy but very much a talker. I could tell that he loved the Lord from my conversations with him. My brother spoke highly of Tim and let us know that he was a man of God! However, he didn't have to because I knew that just from my conversations with Tim. My last time to see Tim was after my brother passed when he road his bike over to my brother's house to give us his condolences as well as sit with us to exchange memories of Darrell. I know they are now both in heaven embracing the love of God and singing Glory, Glory Hallelujah . May Tim rest in peace throughout eternity.
