

William E. "Bill" Gergen

February 13, 1949 - September 12, 2025

William Eugene Gergen was born to Harold William & R. Maxine (Cook) Gergen on February 13, 1949 in Hebron, Nebraska. He died on September 12, 2025 at CHI Health St. Elizabeth in Lincoln, Nebraska at the age 76 years, 6 months, and 30 days.

Bill, as he was affectionately known, was raised on the family farm southeast of Geneva. He graduated from Geneva Public School with the class of 1967. He furthered his education earning a bachelor's degree in animal science.

Bill began his life-long journey showing sheep in 1963. It was a labor of love that resulted in numerous awards over the years including 2004 National Champion Shropshire, 2007 Reserve Grand Champion at Shropshire Nationals, 2008 Reserve Junior Champion Suffolk Ram, and 2018 Final Drive Grand Champion overall Suffolk Ram and best headed Suffolk Ram. Final Drive was one of his greatest accomplishments in breeding and raising sheep, and it was a fitting award as it was his last year on the sheep showing circuit.

Bill's passion was to mentor youth in the sheep industry. He crossed the country numerous times to many state fairs with over 8 different breeds of sheep. He truly cared for his sponsors that allowed him to show their sheep and become part of their families. Bill loved the life he led and had no regrets about it.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents, Harold and Maxine and twin brothers, Paul & Howard Gergen.

He is survived by his sister, Virginia Gergen of Geneva, Nebraska and his adopted sheep-son, Noel Olson and wife Shannon of Warner, Oklahoma.

A Graveside Service for Bill was held on Saturday, September 20, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery in Geneva, Nebraska. Father Harlan Waskowiak presided over the Graveside Service.

The songs "The Gambler," "Angels Too Close To The Ground," "God Bless The USA," and "On The Road Again" were played during the Graveside Service.

Pallbearers included Noel Olson, Carl Olson, Darin Engle, Travis Snyder, Tom Willwerth, and Tom Gillmore. Honorary Pallbearers included Terry Schrick, Roger Snyder, Chris Nun, Dakota Nun, Blake Nun, Caleb Nun, Steve George, George Hornberger, Jerry Engle, Joyce Burhnam, Tom Swearingen, Rocky Swearingen, Rich Gillmore, Mike Mann, Rodney Martin, Donnie Sellers, and Nolan O'Brien.

“ For nearly all of my life Bill was a permanent fixture at all the major shows and sales. Bill always had lots to share, with a lot of practical advice mixed in every conversation! Bill was grounded and passionate about his beliefs.

I am thankful that I watched Bill proudly exhibit and win Iowa and National Champion Ram with "Final Drive", a fitting tribute for a lifetime of showing at a National Level.

Bill will always be fondly remembered and sadly missed. I am happy to have called Bill my friend.

“ I first met Bill at the Ozark Empire Fair in the late 1960's or early 70's. For 60 some years Bill has been my very close friend and at times little brother. We traveled and competed with each other in a group of guys who loved sheep. I have stayed a the Gergen's many times. Bill laid over with us when we lived in Utah. One particular memory: while fitting Wankier sale sheep in Des Moines a yearling ewe kicked Bill's clippers breaking a flare comb, the result was a folding chair thrown several feet establishing a "chair in flight record". Bill you left too soon say HI to the guys.

“ Bill-you always had us laughing and yes shaking our heads at time, but I would NEVER want a state fair to be any different! You loved to share your sheep knowledge with my kids and two pics I took back in '15 at the state fair showed that. Rest easy my friend.

“ Bill was a great sheep man. He would take our sheep across the country and bring them back in, as good or better condition. The best time we had was in 1999 when we had champion and res champion rams at Louisville Kentucky. Bill and I would talk about sheep on our birthday phone call.
